

When it's warm, some mosquitoes can grow from an egg to an adult in only a week!

Adult

Nectar gives adult mosquitoes the energy they need to fly.

Blood gives adult female mosquitoes the protein they need for their eggs to grow.

The Mosquito

Life Cycle

Pupa

Egg Raft

Larva

Adult male mosquitoes have feathery antennae and do not bite.

Please visit www.ms mosquito.com

Common Backyard Mosquito Sources

Open trash bins

Uncovered boats

Rot holes in trees

Tires

Leaky hoses

Fountains and bird baths

Buckets and barrels

Ponds

Clogged rain gutters

Potted plant saucers

Wagons and other toys

Water bowls for pets

Low areas

Neglected pools